Hello!

I'm Laurie, a hair & makeup artist living and working in Melbourne's western suburbs. To me, makeup has always meant creativity and communication. A way to show who you are and how you're feeling on any given day.

My goal is to help you express your true self, whether that's through a strong red lip and bold lash, or a fluffy brow and glowing skin. I'm here to help you show the world who you really are.

FAQS

Do I need a trial for my hair and makeup?

A trial is always strongly recommended, as it cuts down on getting ready time and allows you to relax on the day without having to make any big decisions. If you are unable to have a trial, additional time will be added to the bridal booking to account for additional consultation time.

Do you travel for less than the min. service booking?

Yes. However, the total cost of the booking will reflect the min. service booking.

How long does an application take?

For a makeup application, please allow 45mins and 1hr for hairstyling. 30mins of buffer/touch up time is added to the end of each booking. Laurie will provide you with an approx. getting ready window upon enquiry.

We need to reschedule, is it possible to get a refun on our booking deposit?

In the event of a reschedule or cancellation, booking deposits are held as an administration fee. A new booking deposit will be issued to secure your new date.

What is the max. services you provide?

A max. of 8 combined services (hair & makeup) or 10 of a single service. Laurie will happily provide recommendations for additional artists if your booking requires. Recommendations provided are seperate from Laurie and will have their own pricing, fees and T+Cs.
